

Enact Releases 2025 Sustainability Report

March 25, 2026

RALEIGH, N.C., March 25, 2026 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Enact Holdings, Inc. (Nasdaq: ACT) (Enact) today announced the release of its 2025 Sustainability Report covering the calendar year 2025.

The 2025 report builds on Enact's longstanding commitment to transparency and long-term value creation for stakeholders. It provides updated insights into the company's approach to sustainability, including ongoing efforts related to community impact, employee engagement and development, governance, and risk management. The report also reflects continued engagement with internal and external stakeholders to ensure Enact's sustainability priorities remain aligned with its business strategy.

"On behalf of everyone at Enact, I am pleased to share our 2025 Sustainability Report," said Rohit Gupta, President and CEO of Enact. "Our mission to help people responsibly achieve and sustain homeownership goes hand in hand with how we invest in our employees, support our communities, and govern our business. This report highlights how we continue to make progress across these areas while staying focused on long-term, sustainable performance for all our stakeholders."

Safe Harbor Statement

This communication contains "forward-looking statements" within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These forward-looking statements may address, among other things, our expected financial and operational results, the related assumptions underlying our expected results, guidance concerning the future return of capital and the quotations of management. These forward-looking statements are distinguished by use of words such as "will," "may," "would," "anticipate," "expect," "believe," "designed," "plan," "predict," "project," "target," "could," "should," or "intend," the negative of these terms, and similar references to future periods. These views involve risks and uncertainties that are difficult to predict and, accordingly, our actual results may differ materially from the results discussed in our forward-looking statements. Our forward-looking statements contained herein speak only as of the date of this press release. Factors or events that we cannot predict, including risks related to an economic downturn or a recession in the United States and in other countries around the world; changes in political, business, regulatory, and economic conditions; changes in or to Fannie Mae and Freddie Mac (the "GSEs"), whether through Federal legislation, restructurings or a shift in business practices; failure to continue to meet the mortgage insurer eligibility requirements of the GSEs; competition for customers; lenders or investors seeking alternatives to private mortgage insurance; an increase in the number of loans insured through Federal government mortgage insurance programs, including those offered by the Federal Housing Administration; and other factors described in the risk factors contained in our most recent Annual Report on Form 10-K and other filings with the SEC, may cause our actual results to differ from those expressed in forward-looking statements. Although Enact believes the expectations reflected in such forward-looking statements are based on reasonable assumptions, Enact can give no assurance that its expectations will be achieved and it undertakes no obligation to update publicly any forward-looking statements as a result of new information, future events, or otherwise, except as required by applicable law.
